

The problem with black-and-white thinking is that you never get to see the rainbow.

Omar Cherif

Colours

1. Do you think moral dilemmas are always black and white, or are there grey areas to consider?
2. Do you believe white lies are acceptable in certain situations?
3. Have you ever received unexpected good news out of the blue? What was it?
4. Can you think of a time when you felt green with envy? What triggered that feeling?
5. How do you typically deal with situations that make you see red?
6. What are some common reasons why people find themselves in the red?
7. Do you think everyone feels yellow-bellied sometimes, or are some naturally more courageous?
8. Have you ever done something specifically to earn brownie points with someone? Why did you do it?
